A BILL

To establish and fund a Conference entitled "To Form A More Perfect Union" which will take place January 30, 1982.

BILL PREAMBLE

In keeping with the spirit of the organization of a union, the intent of this Conference is to foster a more cooperative spirit within UCSU. With the onset of a new year UCSU is faced with many new challenges in addition to the old. With the implementation of a Conference such as this we can provide an atmosphere conducive to the sharing of ideas, definition of purpose, and goal setting.

BE IT ENACTED By the Executive Council of the University of Colorado Student Union, THAT:

SECTION 1: Seeing that the conference benefits the entire union it shall be funded from Central Reserve not to exceed $1000.00.

Estimated Itemized Expenses:

100 ea badge holders	10.00
250 name tags	25.00
70 packets copied
(50 pages @.04	140.00
70 folders @.30	21.00
1 banner	40.00
coffee & donuts	70.00
70 lunches @ $4.00	280.00
advertising	300.00

SECTION 2: Upon conclusion of the Conference the Executive Council will evaluate the worth and results of the Conference.

SECTION 2.5: Deliberate attempts to invite students, especially group leaders, will be made.

SECTION 3: Provided that the Conference is deemed successful as well as beneficial, it will be added as a separate line item to the UCSU operations budget for fiscal year 1982-83.

SECTION 4: This bill will become effective upon passage.
