UCSU DRAFT INFORMATION CENTER

STATEMENT OF INTENT

In an effort to serve the interests of all draft-eligible University of Colorado students, the UCSU Draft Information Center has set the following goals:

1. Providing professional training & development of effective draft counselors, consisting of an in-depth study and review of Selective Service Law, and an important program of positively reinforced counseling skills.
2. Provide an atmosphere of confidentiality, in a supportive, intelligent manner to a client in exploring all options which he/she would feel comfortable with.
3. Establish a library and research center to provide accurate, factual, up-to-date information.
4. Organize a speakers' bureau where trained counselors can inform students in classrooms and in the dorms.
