A BILL

BILL HISTORY

UCSU is currently a member of the United States Student Association, an organization with over 425 University members. In the past two years UCSU has sent members from both the executive and legislative branch of UCSU to attend their annual summer conference. In November of 1984 UCSU sent two Executive appointments, two Executive Council appointments and the Finance Director.

BILL SUMMARY

This bill shall allocate $350.00 for hotel rooms ($50.00 for a double per night), $625 for registration fees ($125.00 per person) and $840 for air fare. The Executives shall appoint two designees, Executive Council shall appoint two council designees and the Affirmative Action Commissioner shall recommend one ethnic minority student at large. (See attached affirmative action guideline.) The total amount allocated is $1,815.00.

BE IT ENACTED by the Executive Council of the University of Colorado Student Union THAT:

SECTION 1: UCSU shall allocate an amount not to exceed $1,245.00 from Central Reserve to go towards sending 5 delegates to the national USSA Conference in Chicago.

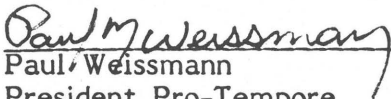

A
Airfare $840
