A BILL

BILL HISTORY

In May of 1985, UCSU hosted the 1985 National AAUS Conference. AAUS was under the impression that the conference host (UCSU) would be publishing a conference booklet. The UCSU conference coordinator did not believe UCSU needed to publish this informational booklet, and subsequently refused to produce one. UCSU and AAUS have been haggling for almost a year now, about who would produce and pay for the booklet. A compromise was reached: UCSU will send AAUS all the information necessary to put together the booklet, plus $500 for partial publication costs. The publication cost of the booklet is estimated to be several times the $500 partial payment. AAUS will be responsible for laying out the booklet and all the things involved in publishing and distributing the booklet. On April 24, 1986 Executive Council failed to pass 24 EB #14 Special Order, which asked Council to allocate $500 from Central Reserve to pay for the booklet. Since then AAUS has called several times, threatening legal suits and disclosure of UCSU non-payment practices to anyone who might care. Also there is the matter of former UCSU Co-Executives Paisley and Cimburek promising AAUS in a written letter that the check was on its way. If UCSU is to be a responsible and respected creditor, then it must pay its legitimate debts.
