A BILL

BILL HISTORY

The Migrant Action Program and UCSU, in conjunction with various community groups, will have the unique opportunity of having the President of the United Farm Workers, Cesar Chavez, speaking here at the CU-Boulder campus. In addition, Senor Chavez will also be showing a short film, "The Wrath of the Grapes," which was recently produced by the UFW, which was the first union fighting for the rights of farm workers and consumer protection. Senor Chavez rarely does speaking tours outside of California, which makes this event truly exceptional.

The event has been tentatively scheduled as follows--(Dec. 11, 1986):

4:00 - 5:00 pm	Classroom discussion (on campus)
5:30 - 7:00 pm	Presentation (on campus)
