A BILL

BILL HISTORY

FINA, the annual Fun in the Nuclear Age outdoor educational and musical festival sponsored by SANE, CU Recycling, and Community Relations, will be Saturday, April 25, 1987. The event has been expanded to include a week of debate, lecture, film, and discussion preceding the festival. Also, the festival itself will be enhanced by the music of "the one-man reggae sensation," John Bayley. The festival is open to all students and will allow student groups to set up booths for their own fundraising.

BILL SUMMARY

John Bayley has agreed to play at FINA for one-half his normal fee, which comes to $1,000. Security (two officers) for the day will cost $300. See attached budget for summary of costs and need.

BE IT ENACTED by the Executive Council of the University of Colorado Student Union, THAT:

SECTION 1: UCSU will sponsor the annual Fun in the Nuclear Age special educational and musical festival.

SECTION 2: UCSU shall allocate $1,300 from Central Reserve for the purpose of contracting John Bayley to play at FINA, and two police officers to work at FINA.

SECTION 3: This Bill takes effect upon passage.
