A BILL

BILL HISTORY

In light of recent events dealing with the Iran-Contra arms deal and controversy, Political Science Professor Edward Rozek has invited Ahmad Ghoreishi to CU to address this very issue. Ghoreishi is the former Chancellor of the National University of Iran, and in 1979 was appointed as the Iranian Ambassador to the United States, but was unable to assume office because of the overthrow of the Shah of Iran. Currently Mr. Ghoreishi serves on the Board of Directors of several major European corporations, and is a frequent lecturer at many Middle Eastern and European Universities.

His discussion, which includes a question and answer segment, will be on Thursday, February 12 at 7:00 pm in Duane Physics G030.
