A BILL

BILL HISTORY

On February 7th and 8th, a student conference, titled "Against Apartheid and Racism," will be held at Columbia University. The main objective of this conference is to bring together student groups from around the nation, to discuss actions that can be taken to help solve the problem of racism both at home and abroad. There are over twenty-five workshops planned for Saturday, February 7th. Some of the workshop titles include: "Racism; At Home and Abroad," "Sanctions, U.S. Policy in South Africa," "Coca Cola and other Boycotts," "Direct Action and Dealing with University Oppression," etc. On Sunday, an all-day meeting will take place to coordinate ideas and organize future action.

The money provided by the Executive Council will fund transportation costs for a member of the Free South Africa Committee to attend the conference. In return, that member will work with the rest of the group and other campus organizations to help alleviate discriminatory practices.

BILL SUMMARY

This Bill allocates $218 + GAR to fund transportation costs for one student to attend the "Against Apartheid and Racism" conference at Columbia University.

BE IT ENACTED by the Executive Council of the University of Colorado Student Union, THAT:

- SECTION 1: An amount not to exceed $218 + GAR, to go toward transportation to the Anti-Apartheid/Racism Conference.
- SECTION 2: Person attending this conference is to bring back a report with ideas to educate students.
- SECTION 3: Conference participant is to put in at least 10 hours with Community Relations in planning the Apartheid Event for later in the spring.
- SECTION 4: Editorials are to be written to all campus papers upon return from the conference.
