A BILL

BILL HISTORY

Second Wind Productions is a local theatre group that uses both students and non-students for theatrical works centered primarily on people of color, and women. It is a non-profit production company which performs in the Denver, Boulder and Ft. Collins areas. Second Wind Productions has worked in conjunction with Black History Month, National Women's Week, Denver's 125th Birthday Celebration and South African Awareness Week. Whenever possible, all plays are presented free to the public with an emphasis placed upon multi-cultural awareness.

Second Wind Productions is asking for financial assistance from Executive Council. In conjunction with Black History Month they will be performing Of A More Fatal Nature on February 19, 20 and 21. The play will be performed in Old Main on the University of Colorado Boulder campus. Admission is free.

The money received will go towards paying honoraria to the theatrical personnel. Second Wind Productions has already received funding from Cultural Events Board, the Cancellor's Office, Vice-Chancellor's Office, Multicultural Counseling, and Black Studies.

BILL SUMMARY

This Bill allocates $1,117.55 to partially fund Second Wind Productions play, Of A More Fatal Nature.

BE IT ENACTED by the Executive Council of the University of Colorado Student Union, THAT:

SECTION 1: An amount not to exceed $1,117.55, which includes GAR, be allocated from Central Reserve to Second Wind Productions to fund the play Of A More Fatal Nature.

SECTION 2: Second Wind Productions is to submit to Executive Council, a written report about the event, pursuant to the provisions of 24 ECB #4.

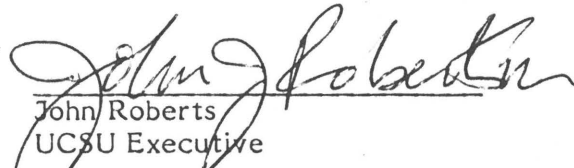

SECTION 3: This Bill takes effect upon passage.
