BILL HISTORY

On December 11, 1986 the students of CU heard Cesar Chavez speak about the "Wrath of Grapes." Since 1985 Chavez, President of the United Farm Workers, has been speaking out against the use of toxic pesticides on California table grapes and the resulting tragedies affecting consumers, migrant farm workers, and their children. A successful table grape boycott will effect a return to the enforcement of California agricultural laws restricting the usage of toxic pesticides.

BILL SUMMARY

This Bill will make UCSU a part of the International Grape Boycott.

BE IT ENACTED by the Executive Council of the University of Colorado Student Union, THAT:

SECTION 1: UCSU hereby bans the sale or use of table grapes in all student fee funded facilities at CU-Boulder. This includes the sale of grapes to non-student fee funded organizations.

SECTION 2: The UMC shall post signs to inform the patrons of the purpose of the grape boycott.

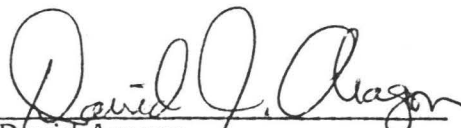

SECTION 3: This Bill takes effect upon passage.
