A BILL

BILL HISTORY

The students enrolled in Sociology professor Tom Mayer's class, Sociology 472 (Sociology of War) are presenting a Conference on War and Peace. A conference committee consisting of eight class members has been formed to plan, organize and produce the conference, which is scheduled for Saturday, April 25. UMC rooms 158A, 159A, 159B, and the Forum Room have been reserved for the conference. Admission to the conference is free and open to the general public.

The conference format will consist of a videotape covering a general history of war, summaries of eight group projects concerning various aspects of war, a keynote speaker, three discussion panels comprised of faculty and class members, and a feature length film.

The money received will go towards advertising and refreshment costs, film rental and projectionist fees. The Department of Sociology has contributed $25 towards the funding of the conference.

BILL SUMMARY

This Bill allocates $607.25 to partially fund the Conference on War and Peace presented by the students of Sociology 472.

BE IT ENACTED by the Executive Council of the University of Colorado Student Union, THAT:

SECTION 1: An amount not to exceed $607.25 plus GAR be allocated from Central Reserve to the Conference Committee of Sociology 472 to fund the Conference on War and Peace.

SECTION 2: Sociology 472 is to submit to Executive Council, a written report about the event, pursuant to the provisions of 24 ECB #4. Failure to do so will prohibit future funding to this group by the UCSU Executive Council.

SECTION 3: Sponsors of the Conference will continue to pursue outside funding from the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs. Any amount obtained will be refunded to Central Reserve.

SECTION 4: This Bill takes effect upon passage.
