BILL HISTORY

School of Education alumni have implemented their certificates and degrees in a variety of ways. Some have become teachers, administrators, involved in higher education and the private sector. As a result, they are a valuable resource for students, in that they can share the methods they employed to create a career. The goal of the School of Education Career Day on April 8, 1987 is to acquaint students with the many facets of an education career which are open to them. Those invited to speak include Vice Chancellor Stuart Takeuchi, Dr. Linda Jones of the State Department of Education, Dr. Theresa Noland, Social Studies teacher at Ranum High School, and Dr. Edward Steinbrecher, Assistant Superintendent of Jefferson County Schools.
