Authored by: UCSU Secretary Valerie Null

A RESOLUTION

- WHEREAS: There is no policy mandating that Executive Council members be present for first or last roll call; and,
- WHEREAS: If Executive Council members are absent during significant portions of meetings, students are not represented; and,
- WHEREAS: Since the current attendance policy has gone into effect, there have been Executive Council members who have been late 6 times and absent for late roll 5 times; and,
- WHEREAS: There is no policy for excusing absences, lates or late absences. THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Executive Council of the University of Colorado Student Union, THAT:

- SECTION 1: Any Executive Council member late or absent for late roll a total of 3 times will have 1 absence added to her/his attendance record.
- SECTION 2: Executive Council members missing both first and last roll will be counted absent for that meeting.
- SECTION 3: Executive Council members absent for 3 votes in one meeting will be counted absent for that meeting.
- SECTION 4: The President Pro-tempore of the Executive Council will have the power to excuse absences, lates, and absences for late roll under the following conditions:
- a. illness
  - b. test or mandatory academic functions
  - c. UCSU business
  - d. emergency
  - e. work
- SECTION 5: All written excuses will be kept on file and will be available to Executive Council members.
