A BILL

BILL HISTORY

Holocaust Awareness Week is a five-day program of speakers, films, workshops, panel discussions and multi-media events. The intent of the conference is to examine how and why the Holocaust happened and how we all can work to prevent it from happening again.

1989 will mark the fifth year of Holocaust Awareness Week. Programs have always been well-planned and attended (last year's attendance was over 2,000). The enthusiasm with which past events have been received assures the success of this year's conference.
