A BILL

BILL HISTORY

Mr. Anthony Harrigan is the President of the United States Business Industrial Council.

The University of Colorado at Boulder has the unique opportunity to hear him speak about American values. Because he will be traveling through the Boulder area on Thursday, April 27th, we have the chance to have him speak at 7:00pm in Chemistry 140.

Mr. Harrigan is the author of eight books and scores of essays in leading journals in the United States, Canada and Europe. He has spoken before many academic, professional and business audiences, including Harvard University, the U.S. National War College, the Executives Club of Chicago, Vanderbilt University and has appeared on television and radio in many parts of this country and overseas.

Mr. Harrigan has contributed to a wide variety of journals, including, New York Times Book Review and the World Affairs and National Review.

Mr. Harrigan is a member of the Editorial Advisory Board of Modern Age. He also has served as a member of the South Carolina Research Committee Commission on Higher Education.

As a reporter, Mr. Harrigan's assignments took him to Vietnam, Cuba, the Dominican Republic, Southwest Africa (Namibia), Japan, Morocco, Tunisia, Turkey, Panama and many other countries. He has also twice been the recipient of the Military Review Award of the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College for excellence in military writing.

Born in New York City in 1925, Mr. Harrigan was educated in the public schools of Charleston, South Carolina, Garden City, New York and at the Cambridge School in Massachusetts. During World War II he served with the U.S. Marine corps. He received higher education at Bard College, Kenyon and the University of Virginia.
