A BILL

BILL HISTORY

The CU Students for Campus Unity was founded as a joint effort between the Black Student Alliance members, Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity members, CU student athletes, other campus minority students, and UCSU officials to address specific race-related concerns on the CU campus.

The group is presently planning a campus-wide and community forum to be held on April 6, 1989 at 7:30pm (room to be announced). The forum will address, among other things, the treatment of student football players by local law enforcement officials, the Folsom Grill incident, and the treatment of minority issues by the media.

We hope that this event will begin the long overdue proces of unifying all students on this campus through open communication, understanding, and mutual trust.

BILL SUMMARY

This bill would allocate $283.95 + GAR to fund advertising for the open forum set for April 6, 1989.
