A BILL

BILL HISTORY

Due to the shift in Financial Aid from grants and work-study monies to loans, the student loan program has taken on increasing importance to the students attending CU-Boulder. Fortunately, both Bob Fomer, director of the Colorado Student Loan Program (CSLP) and Jerry Sullivan, director of Financial Aid for CU-Boulder are actively seeking student input. In light of this Rick Ball and Stephanie Knudson attended the August 31st CSLP directors' meeting.

Many issues of interest to CU students were discussed at this meeting including differential insurance rates, better communication between the CSLP and students, a one time application, and Title IV renewal.

Rick Ball was asked to serve on the Student Task Force at CSLP. He agreed. Further, Rick was asked to attend the CSLP policy Conference Sept. 20, 21, and 22 in Vail, CO to represent student interests. CSLP will waive his application fee.

This bill will allocate $125.00 + GAR for Rick Ball to attend the CSLP policy conference Sept. 20, 21 and 22.
