A RESOLUTION

WHEREAS: The 1988-89 Coloradan reflected one individuals bias towards his university experiences; and,

WHEREAS: These biases have offended, hurt, humiliated & endangered student groups on this campus including but not limited to, the Greek System, the football players and women; and,

WHEREAS: The editor and staff have not been forthcoming with a public apology. THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Legislative Council of the University of Colorado Student Union, THAT:

SECTION 1: UCSU recognizes that the Coloradan should not be the medium for the expression of personal vendettas held by its editor.

SECTION 2: UCSU recognizes that significant harm to the aforementioned groups have and may continue to be the result of such irresponsible editorializing.

SECTION 3: UCSU recognizes the Greek system's right and endorse their efforts to boycott the 1988-89 Coloradan by receiving a full refund.

SECTION 4: UCSU recommends that all dissatisfied students return their Coloradan for full compensation.
