A BILL

BILL HISTORY

The 1990 4th Annual Asian American International Film Festival, sponsored by the Asisan Pacific American Coalition, will take place March 1, 2, and 3. The films of our festival depict the Asian-American experience; this ranges from the experiences of Asians recently arrived in America, to American born Asians discovering the extent of their heritage. The film festival will culminate with a reception on Saturday evening, March 3rd.

The film festival will further educate its viewers as to some of the issues faced by the Asian-American people. In the minds of some, the differences between the various Asian groups may still be unclear. UCSU would be helping to improve cultural awareness on campus with their support of this project. Those who take the opportunity to see this year's crop of films will come away knowing that both similarities, as well as differences, exist in the problems faced by Asian-Americans.

Dear Robert and the UCSU Legislative Council:

I would like to take this time to personally thank you for your generous support of the Fourth Annual Asian American International Film Festival, held recently from March 1-3, 1990. Without your help, both academically in awareness of Asian American issues expressed through films, and financially, I and the film festival committee would not have been able to pull off such a successful and beneficial festival and reception.

I hope that you will be able to continue this tremendous support of our annual event, and, if you were unable to attend any of our screenings or the reception, will be present in future festivals.

Once again, thank you for your support and we look forward to contacting you and informing you of the Fifth Annual Asian American International Film Festival.

With much gratitude---

Sincerely yours,
