A BILL

BILL HISTORY

On April 21, 1989 under a perfect Boulder sky, a great cycling tradition was born in one of cycling's great towns. With the hard work of the UCSU and Program Council, the Buffalo 500 took off on the campus of the University of Colorado. One year later, the excitement, fun, prizes and rewards return.

A full day affair, the Buffalo 500 will be held on Saturday, April 29, at Farrand Field on the University of Colorado campus. The day commences with a Rocky Mountain Collegiate Conference cycling race and caps off with the Buffalo 500 citizen race, an exciting relay race modeled after the Indiana 500 and the movie it inspired, "Breaking Away". Also featured will be varsity athletes on tricycles, a trade exposition, live music, food and plenty of good times. Best of all, the proceeds from the event will go to a C.U. Scholarship program.
