A BILL

BILL HISTORY

This would be a new standing committee that would exist to handle scholarships in general rather than separate appointed committees that usually went out of existence after one year.

BILL SUMMARY

Standing Committee for Financial Aid

BE IT ENACTED by the Legislative Council of the University of Colorado Student Union, THAT:

SECTION 1: A standing committee for financial aid will be formed with the following members:

S.A. to Financial Aid (who will head the committee)
2 Members of Legislative Council
2 Students selected by Legeslative Council

SECTION 2: The committee will have the following responsibilities:

A. Help the Office of Financial Aid review applications for the following scholarships:

Day Care Scholarship*	Schol. Celeb. All People*
Viola Vestal Coulter	Hiram C. Garner
Martin Luther King, Jr.	Julie King
Lambda Chi Alpha	Paul Linden & Company
Laverne Noyes	Janet Roberts
Minnie M. Cunningham	John R. Little
Margorie Skiff Rose	Faculty/Staff
Arnold National	Arnold CUOP
Boulder Scholars	Farrand Hall Minority
Lillian Gutierrez	Proctor/Gamble

Each scholarship represents one or two hours of commitment. Most will be reviewed during the summer, while some will be done in the fall for the spring awards.

*These scholarships require members of the Financial Aid Committee to sit on the Office of Financial Aid Scholarship Committee in order to be awarded. The administration of these scholarships will be turned over to the Office of Financial Aid.

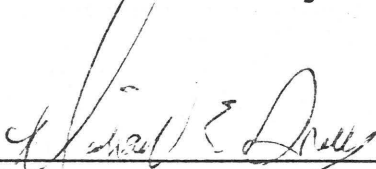

- B. Set up a Student Fee Grant Board that may include members of the Financial Aid Committee.
- C. Set up a committee to re-establish guidelines for the Scholarship Celebrating All People.
- D. Other miscellaneous activities involving financial aid.

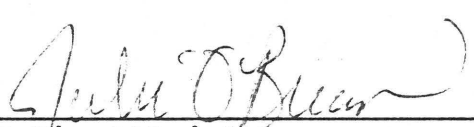

SECTION 3: This bill takes effect upon passage.
