A BILL

BILL HISTORY

The Neighborhood Women and The Colorado Women's Agenda are coming together to produce a unique conference on Reaching Out: Women's Issues in the 90's. The conference will be held October 6, 1990, at the Metro State College Student Center in Denver. The Colorado Women's Organization would like to attend this conference.

The goal of the conference is to provide a forum that will support the efforts of grassroots women in their communities. The keynote will be a multi-racial panel of women who will speak on "Strategies That Work". A Resource Fair will also be available. As a sponsor, Colorado Women's Organization will have a booth at the Resource Fair.

Colorado Women's Organization would like to be a co-sponsor of this event in order to participate in the Resource Fair and provide scholarships for women "in need" to attend.

BILL SUMMARY

This bill allocates ~~$30~~ ^{$30.00} + GAR so Colorado Women's Organization can be a sponsor and attend the Agenda Conference.

BE IT ENACTED by the Representative Council of the University of Colorado Student Union, THAT:

Section 1: That ~~$30~~ ^{$30.00} + GAR be allocated to fund the registration fee for the Agenda Conference.
