BILL HISTORY

On June 5, 1990, UCSU Legislative Council passed 33LCB#3 which called for the publication of sexual assault information. In this bill UCSU recognized the danger of sexual assault students faced and called for continued education and increased resources for students on sexual assault.

On November 29, 1990, UCSU Representative Council continued its support in the fight against sexual assault by passing 34RCB#1 which allocated $600 for book marks dealing with sexual assault and the myths and facts associated with it.

In a continued effort to educate the university community DARE To Stop Rape members have put together a brochure titled "What Can Men Do...To Help Stop Rape?" This pamphlet is designed to increase male awareness of rape and the causes of rape. It will accomplish this by defining both rape and sexual assault and by offering ways for men to stop rape. It also explains the issues and prevalence of male survivors of sexual assault and how to deal with friends who have been raped.

In order to reach as many students as possible, 5,000 pamphlets are to be printed. Places of distribution include dorms, UMC, Recreation Center, Wardenburg, UCSU Office, Norlin Library, Greek Activities Office, DARE presentations, MCCCCD, CU Office of Victim Assistance, Office of Student Conduct, and Community Health Office.
