36 Executive Bill #2

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO
STUDENT UNION

Sponsored by: Executive Malinda M. Matney

A BILL

BILL HISTORY

During the transition from the Associated Students of the University of Colorado (ASUC) to the University of Colorado Student Union (UCSU) in 1974, certain provisions were placed in the UCSU Constitution to ease the transition. At that time,
5 these provisions greatly enhanced and eased the drastic change that took place in the structure of student participation in the university community.

Now, seventeen years after the transition, these provisions are 10 unnecessary and only serve to clutter the Constitution. No change to current student services, rights or responsibilities would result from the passage of this amendment.

BILL SUMMARY

The Legislative Council hereby directs the Election Commissioner to place the following two questions on the Spring 1992 ballot.

BE IT ENACTED by the Legislative Council of the University of Colorado Student Union, THAT:

20 SECTION 1: The Legislative Council hereby directs the Election Commissioner to place the following question on the Spring 1992 ballot:

25 During the transition from the Associated Students of the University of Colorado (ASUC) to the University of Colorado Student Union (UCSU) in 1974, certain provisions were placed in the UCSU Constitution to ease the transition.

30 These provisions currently read as follows:

Article VII Section M. Transition

- 35 1. All student members of the Joint Boards at the time this Constitution becomes effective shall remain in their position until expiration of their terms as set prior to this Constitution

2. All non-students of the Joint Boards at the time this Constitution becomes effective shall remain in office until June 30, 1974.

Do you approve of the deletion of these provisions?
No change to current student services, rights or responsibilities would result from the passage of this amendment.

SECTION 2: The Legislative Council hereby directs the Election Commissioner to place the following question on the Spring 1992 ballot:

During the transition from the Associated Students of the University of Colorado (ASCU) to the University of Colorado Student Union (UCSU) in 1974, Article XV was added for the ease of the transition. This article currently reads as follows:

ARTICLE XV - TRANSITION PROVISIONS

- E. Upon completion of these transition procedures, this Article (clauses A through D) shall be deleted from this Constitution.

Do you approve of the deletion of this article?
No change to current student services, rights or responsibilities would result from the passage of this amendment.

SECTION 3: Should either or both of these question pass with a majority vote AND at least two thousand favorable votes, the remaining sections and/or articles will be appropriately renumbered.

SECTION 4: Adequate publicity shall be provided by the Election Commission in conjunction with the Election Committee pursuant to Article XVII.C of the UCSU Constitution.

SECTION 5: This bill takes effect upon passage.

11/7/91 - Referred to Rules Committee
