A BILL

BILL HISTORY

5 The Oyate Club has been a vocal, active, and publicized student group on campus. One ongoing representation of their commitment to diversity and education has been their annual Native American Awareness Week. Over the past twenty years this event has mitigated some of the classical stereotypes of Native Americans. It has also changed the impression that many junior-high and high school students have of the collegiate experience, as a result of their participation in the weeks' activities.

10 This year the Oyate Club has re-committed itself to help "people interact . . . and learn more about the Indian culture." This goal is both admirable in nature and hard to attain in reality.

15 The Native American Awareness Week will be held February 17-21, 1992. It will include a wide variety of panels and events such as : Career Day, Health Issues, Native American Rights, as well as films and a finale Pow-Wow. As an example of the Oyate community spirit all events are free and open to the public.

20 BE IT ENACTED by the Representative Council of the University of Colorado Student Union, THAT:

25 SECTION 1: To allocate an amount not to exceed $100 + GAR from Representative Council account #1391121 to help fund publicity of the Native American Awareness Week on February 17-21, 1992.
