BILL HISTORY

2 The Ecological Living Group is a student group sponsored by the UCSU Environmental Center. The group seeks to encourage 4 environmentally conscious ways of living through education and is currently exploring the Cooperative Housing model as an affordable 6 and ecologically sound housing alternative for students in the Fall 1993 semester. The North American Students of Cooperation's 8 (NASCO) Cooperative Education and Training Institute is a workshop series focusing on skills/knowledge training for (prospective) co-op members around the U.S. Training in management, conflict 10 resolution, housing officership and financing is offered in the workshops along with courses addressing group politics and 12 race/gender issues.

14 The Ecological Living Group would like to send four of its members to the 16th Annual NASCO co-op training workshop series happening on November 6-8, 1992.
