A BILL

BILL HISTORY

"A Season of Service" is a statewide conference on service-learning as it relates to the academic setting to be held on Friday, March 12, 1993 at the University Memorial Center. This conference is for faculty, administrators, staff and students from Colorado institutions of higher education, public schools and community agencies dealing with the integration of service into the curriculum.

The keynote speaker will be Dr. J. Herman Blake, Vice Chancellor for Undergraduates, Indiana/Purdue at Indianapolis. Dr. Blake is the founder of National Campus Compact, an organization in which universities pledge their campus to service. Also a leading minority spokesperson (African-American) for service learning in higher education. Dr. Blake will speak about the integration of service into the academic curriculum for college students.

Co-sponsors are Colorado Campus Compact, Service Learning-Colorado, University of Colorado-Boulder, Regis University, Colorado State University, Volunteer Clearing House, Campus Outreach Opportunity League, and community agencies from throughout Colorado.
