A RESOLUTION

WHEREAS: the Legislative Council is alarmed by complaints about the performance of UCSU Tri-executives Stephanie Escher, Negar Ayromloo and Patrick Riley;

WHEREAS: the UCSU Legislative Council is alarmed by deficiencies in performance of duties and decisions showing questionable judgement observed by its members, to wit:

- failure to attend the recent annual conference of the Colorado Student Association;
- failure to take steps toward the organization of the student-mandated Women's Resource Center in a timely fashion;
- failure to fill critical executive staff and joint board positions;
- expenditures for office improvements that showed a lack of fiscal restraint;
- unprofessional handling of personnel matters.

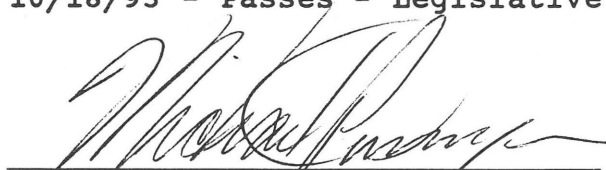

WHEREAS: the Legislative Council has determined that impeachment proceedings would not be in the best interest of the student body at this time;

WHEREAS: the Legislative Council hopes to foster effective working relationship and open communication lines with the executive branch of the UCSU that would allow the Tri-executives to perform their duties in a manner consistent with the spirit of the Constitution;

WHEREAS: the Legislative Council wishes to impart on the Tri-executives the seriousness of the situation as it now stands.

BE IT RESOLVED, that although the Legislative Council has decided not to pursue impeachment proceedings or other remedies at this time, the Legislative Council is prepared to take appropriate action in the future if significant changes in the performance of the Tri-executives are not forthcoming.
