A RESOLUTION

WHEREAS: UCSU fosters an environment of open communication and dialogue, free from coercion and intimidation.

WHEREAS: The discussion of the Wardenburg Student Health Center and CU Plus issue have been suppressed through acts of coercion and intimidation.

WHEREAS: The goal of UCSU is to represent the students concerns and opinions to faculty, staff, administration and the general public.

WHEREAS: UCSU respects the input of all members and employees of the student union: students and UCSU-affiliated cost center directors, staff members and volunteers; regardless of their opinions and/or convictions.

BE IT RESOLVED by the Legislative Council of the University of Colorado Student Union, THAT:

SECTION 1: UCSU encourages and actively supports the open discussion of matters by all members and employees of the student union, all of its constituents regardless of their opinions and/or convictions.

SECTION 2: This resolution takes effect upon passage.
