A BILL

BILL HISTORY

UCSU withdrew from the Colorado Student Association (CSA) after the Spring 1997 election. Previously, students paid a $.50 per semester referendum fee to fund dues for CSA. Currently, there is $4,042.32 remaining in the CSA referendum account. Using the money for purposes other than the referendum question presented on the ballot is poor practice on Legislative Council's part.

BILL SUMMARY

This bill returns the left over money from the CSA referendum account to the Supplementary Operating Reserve. The Student Organizations Finance Office will return the balance through their administrative process in the manner of a student fee buy-down for next fiscal year.

BE IT ENACTED by the Legislative Council of the University of Colorado Student Union, THAT:

SECTION 1: The balance of the Colorado Student Association referendum account is returned to the Supplementary Operating Reserve in the manner of a student fee buy-down for fiscal year 1999-2000.

SECTION 2: The Student Organizations Finance Office will implement this through their regular procedures.

SECTION 3: This bill takes effect upon passage.
