A Bill

Bill history

Stop Hate on Campus (S.H.O.C.) is an organization open to all students. S.H.O.C.'s purpose is to end racism, sexism, anti-Semitism, homophobia, classism and other "-isms" in society through promotion of diverse educational opportunities. S.H.O.C. employs creative activism to gain an equal student voice in response to administrative decisions and reports. The group promotes diversity and equality conferences, programs, and speakers, and other efforts to support global human rights, social/environmental responsibility, and justice nationally and abroad.

Bill Summary

The bill places S.H.O.C. referendum on the Spring 2000 U.C.S.U. ballot for renewal.
