A Resolution
Resolution History

Andrew Luxen served the University of Colorado Student Union as a Representative and as Legislative Council President. During his three years serving as an elected official, he authored and sponsored more bills and resolutions than any other single official in the Student Union. In fact, Luxen's efforts and dedication resulted in more legislation than that produced by all other officials combined during the 1999-2000 academic year. Showing utter and complete devotion to the success of the Student Union, Luxen dedicated countless hours to getting to know the students he represented, researching the legislation he authored and sponsored, and improving the function of the Student Union. He displayed an unsurpassed level of integrity and uncompromising honesty during his entire career. As a result of Luxen's tireless dedication to his responsibilities, the Student Union has gained greater recognition among and accountability to students, and has increased in functionality.
