A Resolution

Resolution History

On Saturday, September 1, 2001, the University of Colorado defeated Colorado State University in the annual Mile High Showdown by a score of 41-14. Immediately following the game, Governor Bill Owens presented the Centennial Cup to CU Head Coach Gary Barnett. Having reclaimed the position of the dominant football program in the state of Colorado, CU is now poised for a return to the national spotlight. The University of Colorado students, faculty, staff alumni and fans all benefit from the added prestige brought about by the success of its football program.

Resolution Summary

This resolution congratulates the University of Colorado players, coaches, and staff for their victory over Colorado State University and reaffirms the students' support of the football program.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Legislative Council of the University of Colorado Student Union, THAT;

Section 1: On behalf of the student body at the University of Colorado at Boulder, we wish to congratulate the players, coaches, and staff for their resounding victory over Colorado State University.

Section 2: On behalf of the student body we offer our continuing support to the football program and best wishes for more victories to come.

Section 3: This resolution takes effect upon passage.
