A Bill to Revise the Student Fee Regulations in Conjunction with Proposed SGFB Changes

Bill History

The Student Group Funding Board (SGFB) specifies in its code that student groups may only use a percentage of their funds for food and payroll, in accordance with the Student Fee Regulations stipulations for SGFB. This legislation revises the Student Fee Regulations allowed allocations for food and payroll to match the proposed changes in the SGFB code. The revised numbers for food and payroll will ensure that groups are allowed to request fair amounts of funds for both categories and to help them best fulfill their missions on campus.

Bill Summary

This bill seeks to revise the Student Fee Regulations to agree with proposed changes to the SGFB code.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the University of Colorado Student Government that:

SECTION 1: Repeal and nullify Student Fee Regulations Section 7.4 which states:

“7.4 Student Payroll: Student payroll is an allowed expenditure for all student groups. All student groups may apply for student payroll from Student Group Funding Board as part of their operating budget, with the limitations of a maximum of 10% of the entire allocated operating budget being designated toward payroll and of following the guidelines within the SGFB Code. This will be effective beginning the 2013-2014 fiscal year.”

and appends new Student Fee Regulations Section 7.4, which states:

“7.4 Student Payroll: Level three student groups may apply for student payroll from Student Group Funding Board as part of their operating budget, with the limitations of a maximum of $5000 of the entire allocated operating budget being designated toward payroll and following the guidelines within the SGFB Code.”

SECTION 2: Repeal and nullify Student Fee Regulations Section 9.2.2.B which states:

“9.2.2.B Food Costs

All student groups are allowed to spend up to 5% of their operational budgets on food for their meetings, retreats and other official functions they host, not including special campus-wide events. This funding can only be awarded by the SGFB when the student group requests that part of their operational budget be designated for food. This will be effective beginning the 2013-2014 fiscal year.

In addition, CUSG will operate as fiscally responsible as possible with regard to food costs for its meetings, hearings, retreats, etc. CUSG will strive to uphold the same standards for food as student groups are expected to uphold. These expenditures should include only those directly related to the purpose and conduct of the group and its official function. Cost centers and joint boards are exempt from this.”

and appends new Student Fee Regulations Section 9.2.2.B which states:

“9.2.2.B Food Costs

All student groups are allowed to spend up to $700 of their operational budgets on food for their meetings and retreats, not including events and travel. This funding can only be awarded by the SGFB when the student group requests that part of their operational budget be designated for food.

In addition, CUSG will operate as fiscally responsible as possible with regard to food costs for its meetings, hearings, retreats, etc. CUSG will strive to uphold the same standards for food as student groups are expected to uphold. These expenditures should include only those directly related to the purpose and conduct of the group and its official function. Cost centers and joint boards are exempt from this.”

SECTION 3: This bill shall take effect upon passage by the Legislative Council and upon either obtaining the signatures of two Tri-Executives or the lapse of six days without action by the Tri-Executives.
