A Bill to Revise the Election Code Regarding Council Member Orientation

Bill History

The Election Code states that newly elected Council members will be sworn in the week after elections are finalized. Due to the change in Article III.A.1.iii., the Election Code will need to be updated to coincide with the changes made.

Bill Summary

This bill seeks to revise the timeline in which the education of new Council members shall take place within the Election Code.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Legislative Council of the University of Colorado Student Government, that:

SECTION 1: Repeal and replace the Election Code §804(d) which states:

“The newly elected officer shall be sworn in at the next Legislative Council meeting.”

With a new section §804(d), which states:

“The newly elected officer shall be sworn in according to Article III.A.1.iii. of the Legislative Council Bylaws”

SECTION 2: This bill shall take effect upon passage by the Legislative Council and upon either obtaining the signatures of two Tri-Executives or the lapse of six days without action by the Tri-Executives.
