A resolution recognizing and thanking Gary Chadwick for his service to the University of Colorado Student Government and the student body

Resolution History

Gary Chadwick first joined the CU rec center staff in 1978 as a recreation program specialist. In 1987, he became the Director of Recreation Services and served in that position for 17 years. While he was Director, he worked closely with the Recreation Services joint-board and CUSG to engage student leaders in the governance and operations of the CU Recreation Services. He led the first renovation of the recreation center during the 1990's and grew the Recreation Services program extensively to accommodate a surging growth in the student body.

In 2004, he became the Executive Director overseeing both the Rec Center and Wardenburg. In 2007, he became the Assistant Vice Chancellor of Health and Wellness. Gary continued his commitment to leadership in working with the Wardenburg Student Health Board and CUSG to ensure the continued voice of students in the governance and operations of the Wardenburg Health Center.

Gary retired from the university in 2009, however his retirement was short lived as he returned to serve as the Interim Director of Recreation Services in summer of 2013 to temporarily fill a vacancy in the position. Since his return, Gary has been a strong force of student advocacy and has pushed the Buff up the Rec project towards completion and created an environment within the recreation center that fosters collaboration, student and staff engagement, and a positive environment.
